MANY persons are told by spectacle-sellers, who call themselves opticians, that glass is as good for the eye as Pebble. Mr. M. differs on this point, and in so doing is desirous of explaining the difference between Pebbles and Glass manufactured and used. Glass does not retain its transparency when exposed to atmospheric influences; it becomes more or less turbid from some spontaneous decomposition or re-arrangement of its elements. The advantage of Pebble over glass is such, the hardness over the former which is therefore not liable to scratch in use, and being a better conductor of heat than glass. To make a perfect Pebble, its axis must be cut at right angles to the axis of double refraction; these essentials are by no means to be found in cheap Pebble spectacles, and therefore the only Security the purchaser has is to buy of an optician of repute who will be more desirous to supply the best quality Pebbles.

A. MENIST,
OCULIST OPTICIAN,

RESPECTFULLY announces that, having received numerous solicitations, he has been again induced to pay a professional visit to this great city; but his stay will be limited, as important affairs demand his presence in Europe.

The superiority of his Spectacles, Eye-glasses, and Binoculars is so well known throughout India, that it is not necessary further to mention it. Mr. Menist has devoted a lifetime to the profession, and the success which has attended his treatment of numerous difficult and apparently hopeless cases of defective vision sufficiently guarantee his skill.

Mr. Menist may be consulted at the Establishment of his agents.

The Bombay Gazette

MONDAY, APRIL 24, 1882.

IT is with somewhat mixed feelings that most people will regard the judicial appointments relating to the Bombay High Court which we publish this morning. Mr. Ilbert's appointment as Legal Member was in its way so singular that no one in India or at home has ever attempted to explain it, and to some considerable extent, we admit, it has rather taken the edge off the novelty of Lord Hartington's eccentricity in distributing his legal patronage. Nevertheless, there is wherewithal for surprise yet remaining, and while Mr. Ilbert's elevation could neither be approved nor condemned by reason of the sheer ignorance of everybody respecting the merits of his Lordship's nominee, there are fairly positive grounds for forming a strong opinion as to the latest exhibition of his choice. A Conservative Government on a memorable occasion obtained the soubriquet of the "Who-who?" Ministry, on account of the exclamation of the old Duke of Wellington, whose deafness prevented his detecting readily the obscure names which were read over to him. Probably an old Indian will half-unconsciously repeat some such interrogation as he listens to the names of the "Who-who?" nominees of the Secretary of State. According to Reuter, the Hon'ble Sir Charles Sargent has been elevated to the Chief Justiceship of Bombay in succession to Sir Michael Westropp; while to fill the vacancy thus caused among the ordinary judges of the High Court the Home Government have selected Mr. Matthew Henry Scott, of the Bombay Civil Service. The announcement of both these appointments is made in an apparently authoritative manner, which hardly leaves room, however much one were inclined, for doubting its authenticity. It is not, evidently, made on mere rumour, nor on the authority of a newspaper report; and the day on which the intelligence is received might indicate that the appointments had appeared in Friday night's London Gazette. However this may be, we are bound, in the absence of qualification or contradiction, to treat the news as correct. The promotion of Sir Charles Sargent to the seat vacated by Sir Michael Westropp is indeed confirmed by an independent communication as we go to press, and it is a step of which we have approved by anticipation. We consider he has earned it, and the honour is a just reward for his abilities, industry, and long service. It is quite true that had his career taken its legitimate course, Sir Charles would not have been a puisne judge of Bombay; but he has occupied his seat so long as to thoroughly acclimatise him to his position. He was, as is well known, Chief Justice of the Ionian Islands until the group were handed over to the Kingdom of Greece. When he retired, a comparatively small pension was allowed him by the Greek Government, to be discontinued on his receiving fresh employ. We do not wish to say anything unjust, or even unkind, of the Hellenic State, but we doubt very much whether the Government of Athens remitted Sir Charles's pension very regularly. It was, of course, guaranteed by the British Government, and though the Chief Justice always had his cheque, it is a question whether the effects were provided from the Greek Exchequer. If any difficulties, such as those respecting the other guaranteed liabilities of Greece, ever existed, they were put an end to speedily by Sir Charles's appointment to the Bombay Bench on April 28, 1866. It will be seen from this that the new Chief Justice has almost completed his sixteenth year of service among us, and being, as he is, the senior judge on the Bench, he takes the chief seat by merit and prescription.

Respecting the second appointment, the public surprise will be shared in fair proportion by Mr. Matthew Henry Scott himself. It is no disparagement to that gentleman to say that had the Bombay service been individually canvassed for an opinion regarding the possible judge, not one person would have suggested his name. If the appointment of Mr. Scott to the High Court has really been made, we will await with curiosity to hear some justification for his promotion. A reference to the Civil List will show that Mr. Scott had no claims by reason of seniority. On the contrary, he appears as the junior of many men who have certainly given more evidence of judicial capacity than has ever, so far as we are aware, been attributed to him. He is in his nineteenth year of service, having joined in August, 1863. His present hierarchical status is that of Second Grade Judge and Sessions Judge at Khandesh, and he has been acting First Grade Judge since 18th February last. His career as a pucka Judge is a limited one. He has held his present appointment for some fourteen months, and, all told, it will be as much as he can do to qualify. Ahead of him, and at the head of the list, we find Mr. Mactier of thirty-four years' standing, and then Mr. Shaw of thirty-one, both of whom may be easily disposed of as not being, so to speak, "in the running" for the High Court. Mr. Coghlan has just gone, and Mr. Newnham is about to follow, being two men who in their day might reasonably have hoped to take High Court rank. In the catalogue, with twenty-three years' service credited to him, is Mr. Herbert Birdwood, a gentleman who holds the post of Judicial Commissioner in Sind, and who has acted as a judge of the High Court. Next comes Mr. Wedderburn with twenty-one years, a First Grade Judge, just appointed to Poona. In the same category occurs the name of Mr. Izon, also a First Grade Judge, and at present holding that position at Rutnagherry; and that of Mr. Macpherson, of Surat, a First Grade Judge. In the nineteen years' list we find the names of Mr. Naylor, the Remembrancer of Legal Affairs, and Mr. Phillpots, a First Grade Judge, stationed at Ahmedabad. Now, among this group of men, all possessing prior claims for promotion to Mr. Scott, it would be idle to assert that none are equal or superior to him in ability. The first three, Mr. Birdwood, Mr. Wedderburn, and Mr. Izon, all over twenty years' service, at once suggest appropriate judges for the High Court. They, at least, are men of recognised ability, and not one word could be said against the elevation of any one of the three. All that is known regarding Mr. Scott does not indicate that very high opinions have been entertained respecting him. Two or three years ago, his appointment as Acting Judge of Sattara during the temporary absence of Mr. Mactier was gazetted, and subsequently cancelled. Now, it would be interesting to know upon what grounds the appointment was cancelled, and whether an adverse expression of opinion did not come from the judges of the High Court respecting the qualifications of Mr. Scott.

We have confined our remarks in speaking of eligible candidates for the High Court to those whose names appear in the list of Covenanted Civil Servants. Outside these we find the Hon'ble Nanabhai Haridas, Acting Judge of the High Court. Mr. Nanabhai Haridas has been acting judge off and on for about nine years, and his confirmation has been looked for at any time within that period. That he should have been passed over on this occasion is something more than a personal matter. Bombay is now the only Presidency in which native judges do not sit on the Bench of the High Court. They cannot be excluded on principle, else Mr. Nanabhai Haridas would not now be dispensing justice. The Acting Judge cannot be personally unfit for the exalted Bench, or he would not be placed, even temporarily, upon it so frequently. The native community have looked upon the admission of some of their compatriots to the High Court as a matter of course, and although their claims might have been postponed before those of some brilliant luminary, it is hard to see why they should be set aside on behalf of Mr. Scott. Moreover, we think consideration is due to men who have temporarily occupied seats in the High Court. It is, perhaps, not desirable that a man should have a lien on a particular place, because in the exigencies of the public service he was required to fill it for a limited period. At the same time, it would be better that ad interim officers should be selected from among men who have no immediate claims to the post, than that really qualified and eligible candidates should be inconsiderately placed in the position of those who "fooled with hope, trust on, and think to-morrow will repay." It would be bad enough if baseless expectations were overthrown by an equal rival, but it is indefensible that they should be sacrificed on behalf of avowedly minor candidates. Mr. Herbert Birdwood, for example, has not only been selected for temporary honour, but he actually is first in seniority of possible candidates, while his merits are sufficiently well known to speak for themselves. Mr. Marriott has frequently sat upon the Bench, and his claims are regarded as among the best. Mr. Latham is now acting. Seeing that the vacancy is on the legal and not on the civilian side of the Bench, either of these gentlemen might naturally be considered to possess a prior right to that of the Session Judge of Khandesh.—We have said we should like to hear Mr. Scott's appointment explained. In our opinion the most agreeable explanation would be that Reuter had erred, and that the appointment had never been made.

THE intervention of the Canadian House of Commons in the Irish difficulty is a singular step, the first of the kind taken by any of the Colonial Legislatures. No doubt the example once set, other Assemblies, in Australia and elsewhere, will follow suit, and the Colonial Office will have as much reason as other departments to wish the Irish question solved. The Irish vote in the States is so large and so well organised that the House of Representatives at Washington has frequently deemed it advisable to pass votes of sympathy, and a year or two ago Mr. Parnell was invited to address the House on the wrongs of his country. But Canada has hitherto kept aloof; except when the Fenians twice invaded her borders, she has had nothing to do with the agitation which has made itself felt in the States. What practical effect is expected of this address to the Queen recommending the extension of Canadian institutions to Ireland, and the liberation of the political prisoners, it is not easy to divine. Whatever concessions to the desire for local self-government the Gladstone Cabinet may have in contemplation,—Mr. Gladstone, Lord Hartington, and Mr. Courtney have all three used language which seems to imply that some such measure is contemplated,—it is certain that an autonomy as complete as that existing in Canada is not at all on the cards. The unity and authority of the Imperial Legislature must be maintained at all costs; and the Canadian Assembly is completely independent of Parliament. In this address to the Queen the Canadian House of Commons has recommended more than Mr. Parnell himself has ever asked for.

FROM the letter of a correspondent published in another column, it will be seen that Melbourne has been getting up a Russian scare quite on its own account. It will be remembered that a month or two ago Australia was honoured with the visit of a Russian squadron. The visitors were entertained with extreme cordiality by the hospitable Australians. There appeared nothing more in the visit than there would be in the arrival of a few German or American ships of war at Plymouth or Southampton water, or in the appearance of the Channel Fleet off Cherbourg or in the mouth of the Tagus. It is due to the ingenuity of the Melbourne Age, however, to have discovered in the friendly call a naval reconnaissance with a view to attacking Sydney and Melbourne should war break out between England and Russia. For a week or ten days nothing had been talked about but fortifying the ports of Australia, and making preparations for the enemy. The island-continent has suffered occasionally from epidemics of this nature, and it was with a view to quieten them that a Royal Commission on Colonial defences was appointed some years ago. Beyond taking voluminous evidence, we are not aware that anything was done in the matter, either by the Commission or the Imperial or Colonial Governments. The Melbourne Argus states that "the Australian press, almost without exception," treated the Age's "find" as a hoax. We believe they are sensible in so doing. There was nothing in a visit of a Flying Squadron, per se, to justify suspicion. If there were, we ought to be suspected of meditating hostile designs against every port in the world. This apart, it must not be forgotten that modern rules of war have done much to "localise" warfare; and if they have not specifically forbidden, they certainly discountenance, attacks by one belligerent on outlying dependencies of the other constitutionally separate from it, and taking no part whatever in the contest. It would have been as reasonable for Austria to have declared war against Turkey ten years ago, and have proceeded to burn Belgrade and devastate Servia and Roumania, as for Russia to spite England by attacking Australia. An enemy of the Sultan would not wreak his vengeance on Bulgaria, and during the late war Russia specifically excluded Egypt from its military operations, although the Khedive actually sent a contingent to Constantinople. Of course, an exception might be made respecting Canada in a conflict between England and the United States, if such a suicidal combat should ever arise, for in that case Canada, if not the cause of the quarrel, would probably be a party to it, and in any case, circumstances would force the theatre of war into the Dominion. But it would rather be to Russia's advantage in a fight with England to keep hardy and loyal communities like those of the Australian Colonies from becoming the active allies of her enemy with their muscles and res

THE SIMLA MUNICIPALITY.

The indignation meeting to protest against Municipal mismanagement almost fell through again to-day. Only twenty-two persons were present, including Mr. Hume and Mr. Molesworth.

There appears to be much less interest in the movement this season than last, when many persons allowed a personal feeling against Major Nisbet to influence them. Mr. Coldstream, the new Deputy Commissioner, arrives shortly, and the ill-feeling is evaporating.

Mr. Molesworth, who was elected chairman, spoke at considerable length, reviewing the previous action of the Reform Committee, and stating that though five months had elapsed, no reply had been received to their last representation to Government.

The meeting passed a resolution approving of the action of the Reform Committee, and a vote of thanks for their efforts. A resolution was also passed to the effect that measures be taken to secure a reply from Government.

Mr. Cullen gave one or two instances of oppression by the Municipality; and the meeting terminated by a vote of thanks being passed to the chair.

THE Suratees are considering the ways and means for some extensive water-supply scheme for their city. The comparatively poor Municipality of the place is unable to cope with the difficulty, and a reference on the subject was made to Government, who have pointed out to the Surat Committee that it is practicable to bring water from a place called Kamrej, which is on a high level, and the water accumulated there does not become salt during high tides. The estimated expenditure is roughly put down at Rs. 8,00,000. There are only 12,000 houses in Surat that can be assessed, and to get the sinews of war from these few house-owners is said to be an impossibility.

SMALL-POX is now prevalent in Ajmere and Neemuch. There have been two cases at the former and three at the latter place which terminated fatally.

ARRANGEMENTS have now been made to provide a native interpreter to accompany each batch of Central Asian pilgrims during their journey from the Punjab to Bombay. The several railway companies have agreed to the issue of tickets to these interpreters from Attock to Bombay. This will reduce considerably the inconvenience hitherto experienced by both the pilgrims and the railway officials, in consequence of the language of the former not being understood.

THE Bannas, which is the largest bridge on the Rajputana-Malwa Railway, was opened last week between Ajmere and Neemuch. The Engineer-in-Chief, Mr. Carter, gave a breakfast to his subordinates on the occasion.

AN accident occurred on the East Indian Railway on Thursday to the down mail which left Allahabad for Calcutta that morning. Some eight or ten vehicles were derailed near Arrah station, owing, it is supposed, to some defect in the road. The line was not cleared till 3-30 a. m. on Friday morning, and in consequence of this the up-passenger train, due to arrive in Allahabad at 5-30 a. m., was six hours late.

THE quiet humour of the young officer who lately, walking into his club for luncheon, found a friend sitting in the room smoking, and asked him if he would have any objection to his eating while the other smoked, has, says the Lahore paper, been outrivalled by a gallant gentleman at Simla. When out riding the other evening a dog accompanying a lady ran after his horse, which, taking fright, threw his rider. The latter picked himself up, and hat in hand approached the lady and expressed a hope that her dog had not been hurt.

The Pioneer takes a hopeful view of Afghan affairs, as opposed to the Civil and Military Gazette's pessimist way of looking at all Central Asian questions. "The fatal step taken by Shere Ali in listening to agents of the Russian Government," the Allahabad paper thinks, "has shown even the blindest partizans of the family that the utterances of irresponsible Russian Generals are worthless; and that Ayoub has equally arrived at the same conclusion is proved by his peaceful journey to Teheran, in place of a hurried flight from Meshed to Askabad. . . . . He had at one time an intention of visiting Turkey, and he may perhaps now seek to carry this out unless objections are raised by our agent at Teheran. The Amir Abdul Rahman should find little difficulty in really consolidating his power, as his most dangerous rival may be regarded as out of the running, at least for some time to come.

THE Allahabad paper is solicitous that too much fuss should not be made over the Burmese Embassy. "The barest civility compatible with the circumstances ought certainly to be enough for the representative of the Prince who was guilty of the Mandalay atrocities, particularly as it is reported from Rangoon that more executions have taken place. What decent relations can a civilised Government possibly have with a tyrant who murders women and c[illegible]dren now the Envoy might be told to ha[illegible] until an explanation has been given o[illegible]rocities.'

THE North-West Provinces crop and weather report for the week ended on the 19th April states :—No rain fell during the week, except slight showers in Jhansi. Rain is wanted in Kumaun. The rabi harvest is nearly over; outturn about average. Markets are well supplied. Prices are rising in Allahabad and Kumaun, and falling in Bareilly and Aligarh; elsewhere they are stationary. Cholera continues in Gorakhpur, Fyzabad, and Sitapur; has increased in Allahabad; and a few cases are reported from Lucknow. Small-pox continues in Jhansi, Moradabad, and Agra, and has appeared in Meerut and Cawnpore. Slight cattle-disease is reported in Kumaun, Lucknow, Allahabad, and Jhansi.

THE following is the official summary of the reports on the weather and crops in Assam for the week ended the 6th April :—"Very wet weather in the Surma Valley. The low buro paddy damaged in places by floods, but ploughing generally facilitated by copious rain. In the Assam Valley rain fell generally, but most heavily in the eastern districts. Ploughing for asu crop in progress. In the hill districts high winds and thunder-storms. Public health generally good."

A SON of the late co-regent of Hyderabad, a home correspondent writes, is now in London. He is about to rent a large house there, and take his place in "society" during the current season. He was present in the Commons during the clôture debate.

THE writer of the Pioneer's weekly letter on "European Politics" remarks :—It is not often that we are able to record a diplomatic success in Persia, but here is one which well deserves mentioning. A few months ago two boys were purchased on boardship at Muscat from an Indian woman, a passenger from Bombay, by two Persians named Hussein and Fatee, who brought them to Shiraz, and there sold the lads to Persian dealers. One of the boys died on his way to Ispahan, and the other has been handed to the British Agent at Shiraz, to be sent to the Residency at Bushire. The two men who brought the boys to Persia and sold them at Shiraz are in prison at Teheran, and the two dealers who purchased them at Shiraz have been punished by fine and imprisonment.

THE London correspondent of the Newcastle Daily Chronicle says that it is roughly estimated that in Ireland there are about £6,000,000 of arrears of rent due to the landlords that cannot be got. Men well informed on Irish matters believe that it will become necessary in the end for the Government to pay the landlords £2,000,000 of this, on their undertaking to free the tenants from the other £4,000,000. It seems a very extraordinary proposal to make, but it is supported by persons of intelligence and authority. The landlords despair of getting half the arrears, and if they were offered the school; one of the bigger boys astonishing his thankful. The tenantry are not in a position to pay—so men acquainted with the country say. It would not be a surprise to see a proposal made in Parliament in the course of a year for a grant to be made to the Irish landlords for such a sum, in consideration of their making a clean sweep of the arrears. It would have been a wiser course never to have entered upon this cumbrous system of Land Courts, but to have bought the landowners out honestly and fairly, and to have resold the property to the tenants.

A CORRESPONDENT in North Borneo writes as follows to the Allahabad paper under date, Labuan, March 28 :—"The Spaniards are very jealous about this new North Borneo Company, and as a set-off have forcibly established themselves on the island of Tawi, belonging to the Sultan of Sulu. His Majesty is very indignant at this, and wants to fight, but as the Spaniards have a strong garrison and 1,000 men near the capital, it is to be hoped he and his braves will think better of it. We had two audiences with the Sultan by means of an interpreter; the second time he kept us waiting more than an hour whilst he was being dressed in gorgeous robes by his wives. At last he sent a message to say that he had 'some new socks which he could not get on!' The united force of all the harem would not make these refractory socks pull on properly. He spends all his time and money in cock-fighting, giving 100 dollars for a good cock, and then binding the spurs on himself and betting against another cock. We afterwards visited the principal parts of North Borneo, which the company is making settlements; at present it is dense and interminable forest, with thick jungle undergrowth. It is very difficult to see how a fortune is ever going to be made out of such a country, at all events without waiting many years and sinking millions of dollars. Sarawak has been taken in hand 37 years, and even now is not much more than self-supporting."

ACCORDING to the Voltaire, M. Gambetta proposes to stand aloof from politics for some time, and to travel abroad, probably in England.

HYDERABAD CONTINGENT.—Consequent on the departure on privilege leave of Captain Kennedy, Assistant Adjutant-General H. C., Bolarum, Captain Gilchrist, of the 1st Cavalry H. C., officiates as Assistant Adjutant-General.

THEFT.—Cowasjee Merwanjee was on Saturday last convicted by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee of stealing an embroidered skull-cap, valued at Rs. 9, the property of Sowrojee Dhunjeebhoy. He was sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment.

BERAR LOCAL FUNDS.—A grant of Rs. 2,17,891 for the year 1880-81 was allotted for the six districts, of which the outlay was only Rs. 1,81,604, or Rs. 36,287 less than the final grant. The percentage of establishment charges is 10·55 per cent. on the expenditure.

SELLING A WOMAN.—We see from an Ahmedabad paper that an inhabitant of Bhownagar is reported to have sold a Kunbi woman to a merchant in [illegible]walka. The woman is said to be locked up in the house of the purchaser, [illegible]owever, has been excommunicated by his caste.

DROWNED.—A coroner's inquest was held on Saturday at the Morgue, Cammateepoora, on the body of Shaik Hoosein Shaik Furreed, aged nine years, who was found drowned in the sea at Moma Hajomee. A verdict of accidental death by drowning was recorded.

A VAGRANT IN TROUBLE.—Edmund C. Steinberz, a vagrant, was on Saturday last convicted by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee of returning to the Government Workhouse on the expiration of the leave granted him by the Governor of the Workhouse. He was sentenced to fourteen days' rigorous imprisonment.

ELLICHPUR.—A correspondent writes :—Mr. Knowlys, Assistant Commissioner, has arrived and assumed charge of his duties, vice Major Rennick, on furlough. Poor Captain Whistler (Ben. S. C.), of the 2nd Infantry H. C., located here, who was killed by a tiger, entered the army in July, 1869. He was liked by all who knew him.

PERSONATING A POLICE HAVILDAR.—Shaik Adum Mahomed, a cabasee, was on Saturday last convicted by Mr. W. Webb of pretending to hold office as a public servant (a police havildar), and thereby endeavouring to extort the sum of 8 annas from Dhondoo Mahadao, a cart-driver, while passing along the public road. He was fined Rs. 25, or in default to undergo one month's Rigorous Imprisonment.

SECUNDERABAD.—A correspondent writes :—Although we had rain last week the heat is becoming intolerable. Water is scarce. The depth of water in the Hoosainsaugur lake is only 13 feet. On the same date in 1881 it was 14 feet; in 1880, 24½ feet; and in 1879, 31 feet. I learn that a "water project" is to be undertaken by the P. W. D. to supply the troops and the community with water from a tank near Trimulgherry. The troops north and south of Trimulgherry have their own water supply.

COURTS-MARTIAL.—A correspondent writes from Jalna that two general courts-martial have been held here, and adjourned sine die. "Since the cases are sub judice, I refrain from giving particulars. One case is in connection with certain Rohillas, and the other with money transactions. The courts were composed by officers from Bolarum, Hingolee, and Aurungabad. Colonel Way officiated as Judge Advocate. The weather is becoming intolerably warm, 105°. A shooting party has been organised."

THEFT ON BOARDSHIP.—Antone Rodrigues, a topaz on board the P. and O. steamship Ancona, was on Saturday last convicted upon his own confession by Mr. W. Webb of stealing on the 19th August, 1881, a silver watch and gold chain attached, valued at Rs. 228, the property of Mr. Ernest Burt, 3rd officer of that vessel. The prisoner, it appears, had stolen the watch and chain on the date in question from the complainant's cabin while the ship was lying in Shangai harbour, when every inquiry was made, but the theft could not be detected. On Friday evening last the prisoner while leaving the Prince's Dock gates was searched by the policeman doing duty there, and the gold chain was found concealed on his person, and he was arrested on suspicion. The chain was subsequently identified by the complainant as his property; and upon a further search being instituted on board that vessel amongst the effects of the prisoner, the watch was found concealed in a box belonging to the prisoner. He was sentenced to six months' rigorous imprisonment.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The children of the John Connon High School gave a little entertainment on Friday afternoon, to which they invited their parents and a few friends. The little ones had to spend the time as three days to prepare their recitations, songs, and piano pieces, deserve all the more praise for their spontaneous hard work. The school-room was tastefully decorated with flowers, and the happiness and perfect order of the children were prominent features of the programme, only surpassed by the two pieces recited by the elder children. One of the pieces, called the "Lady of Provence," was recited by one of the girls; and the other, called "Ivan the Czar," by one of the boys. The execution of both pieces did teacher and taught great credit, and Mr. Smeaton should be proud of the accomplishments of his pupils, for they are not to be surpassed by any of the same age in Bombay. The song "Chippree Chip," by the wee ones of the school, made a very pleasant diversion; the young folk who took part in this ranging from the age of four to seven. They were supported by a few of the bigger girls, who, it seems, had entirely taught and drilled these little ones into their part, and also undertook their care during the entertainment, which must have been the secret of the good behaviour of the small fry. A very important phase of the evening was the presentation of a handsome album to Mr. Smeaton, the head of master, not only by the presentation, but also by the appropriate little speech he had got up for the occasion. The album was laboriously carried up to the platform by two little children dresed in blue.

THE "ALBLESS BAUG."—The Kaisar-i-Hind understands that extensive alterations and additions are shortly to be made in the place called "Albless Baug," near Churney-road station, so well known to passing Europeans as the "wedding place" of the Parsees.

A CORRESPONDENT in North Borneo writes as follows to the Allahabad paper under date, Labuan, March 28 :—"The Spaniards are very jealous about this new North Borneo Company, and as a set-off have forcibly established themselves on the island of Tawi, belonging to the Sultan of Sulu. His Majesty is very indignant at this, and wants to fight, but as the Spaniards have a strong garrison and 1,000 men near the capital, it is to be hoped he and his braves will think better of it. Sarawak has been taken in hand 37 years, and even now is not much more than self-supporting."

ELECTRIC LIGHTING AT SURAT.—A correspondent of the Samachar says :—"The Municipal Commissioners of Surat have completed their arrangements with regard to lighting the town by electricity. A seventeen light-post is to be erected between the Delhi gate railway station and the Collector's bungalow, at a cost of Rs. 8,000 per year. Each light is to be of 2,000 candle power.

THE SCHOOLMASTER ABROAD.—A vernacular paper of Ahmedabad hears on reliable authority that in several districts in Gujarat the schoolmasters or mehtajees have recently been entrusted with the responsible duty of dispensing medicines to the sick within the circuit of their villages. The Shamsher Bahadoor thinks that there is of serious importance. It is true that the medicines kept in stock are of the simplest kind; but are the mehtajees, who know only a smattering of Guzerati, fit to diagnose a case? Will they be able to know when a certain medicine is specified, and it only to be thrown away? What is the guarantee against an idiot of a schoolmaster giving double the quantity of the medicine, with a view to making short work of the patient?

THE NEW PALACE AT BARODA.—The Luxmi Villas Palace, now in course of building at Baroda, will cost about 40 lakhs. The Baroda public are not in favour of the site. It is quite in a corner. The general opinion is that the site should be changed even now, when only about two lakhs have been expended. They think that if it does not meet with he approval of the Gaekwar after it is completed, the large sum will have been spent in vain.—Guzerati.

CHOLERA AT KOLHAPORE.—We regret to hear of an outbreak of cholera at Kolhapore, by which the S. P. G. Mission at that place, under the care of the Rev. Mr. Taylor, has suffered much. We believe that eight of the native Christian community have been stricken down by the disease. Arrangements have been made for the removal of the mission to Panala, a hill station, for a season. —Bombay Guardian.

NEW POLO-GROUND AT POONA.—We understand that a new Polo-ground is being prepared on the ground on which the lines of the 8th N. I. recently stood. Mr. Malone, of the P. W. Department, is in charge of the work, which bids fair to rival the old polo-ground near Wanowrie as regards convenience.—Deccan Herald.

THE TULLIGANUM ACCIDENT.—The trial of the engine-driver, Mr. George Cowel, on the charge of rashly and negligently driving his engine at the Tulliganum railway station, will, we hear, commence before Mr. Plunkett, the Cantonment Magistrate, to-morrow (Saturday). Mr. Inspector O'Connor, of the Railway Police, will conduct the case for the prosecution.—Ibid.

TAXES ON MILLINERS AND DRESS-MAKERS.—The following curious paragraph appears in the Deccan Herald :—"We learn that it is the intention of the Municipal Commissioners of Poona to tax milliners and dress-makers who exhibit no signboards will be fined, and that the detection of private business in this line will be undertaken by the Abkarree Department."

THE ARCHBISHOP OF GOA IN BOMBAY.—Along with his Grace the Archbishop there came four priests from the mission of Salsette. His secretary is Monsignor Joseph Pires Antunes, D. D., whom His Holiness has just honoured by appointing him one of his Private Chamberlains, and who will therefore henceforth be addressed as the Right Reverend. Father John L. Monteiro, who was assistant-secretary, to the late Archbishop, and was devotedly attached to His Grace to the very last, has now returned to India, to resume his labours here as before, only the more efficaciously, now that he has been ordained priest. The two other priests have come to India to work on the mission. The deacon, F. Benevenuto de Souza, is well known as a valued contributor to the Catholic Press of Lisbon. The minorist, Joaquim Jose dos Santos, of Colvalem, is attached to his Grace's household. May Heaven prosper the work of these missionaries, who are devoting themselves to carry on the work in which St. Francis Xavier spent the last ten years of his life !—Bombay Catholic Examiner.

THE POONA THEATRICAL AFFRAY CASE.—The case in which nineteen natives were charged with rioting at a theatre was disposed of on Thursday evening. The evidence for the prosecution went to prove that one Muhani engaged the theatre in Ganesh Peth for the night of the 25th March last, and announced by placards and hand-bills that there would be three performances by "Belora Chimo and Narayan, the two last having been expressly brought from Sholapoor and Bombay, at considerable expense." Narayan, however, did not arrive from Bombay, and the audience became clamorous, and attacked and all-used the lessee Muhani, and in evidence for defendants it was shown that about 2,000 persons who had attended the theatre to hear Narayan sing were sadly disappointed, and demanded the refund of the prices of the tickets they had purchased. The complainant promised to do this, but when going out of the theatre he attempted to run away, when he was seized and made over to the police by the accused. Six of nineteen persons, viz. 1 Narayan, 2 Shumoo B'T'yabhli, 1 Ganpat, wullud Emaun, 11 Hoosein, and 12 Govind Raghoba, were convicted and sentenced each to pay a fine of Rs. 40, in default to suffer one month's rigorous imprisonment.—Deccan Herald.

COFFEE-HOUSES VERSUS GROG-SHOPS.—The coffee-house movement as initiated some years ago in Great Britain, imitated successfully in Calcutta, and now prosecuted in Bombay by the Young Men's Christian Association, is one that has our cordial sympathies. The object is to save sailors, soldiers, and the labouring classes from frequenting drinking saloons, by furnishing pleasant and inviting localities free from those pernicious associations and treacherous influences that are so often found in the former. There were coffee-houses previously; but the peculiarity of this movement is that it is a loving Christian agency accommodating itself to the tastes of those whom it seeks to help, in order that it may elevate those tastes. God has greatly blessed this movement. Calcutta establishments have been wonderfully helpful to the seamen. There may be differences of opinion with regard to the extent of concession to be made to the tastes and habits of men, and in some instances mistakes may have been made. A correspondent seems to think [illegible] has also been [illegible] open on the Sabbath : a thing of evil that good may come. When David took the showbread for his hungry followers, some thought that this principle was being followed; but the New Testatment does not countenance it. The fact, however, is that it is the principal day of dissipation with the classes for whose special benefit these coffee-houses are instituted, and there would seem to be little need of such institutions if they were not opened on the Sunday.—Bombay Guardian.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A CATHOLIC PRIEST.—St. Xavier's College, Bombay, suffered a severe and most painful loss on Wednesday last, in the sudden death of one of its most promising Professors, Father Otho Ziegert, S. J. The circumstances could hardly have been more painfully startling. On Sunday morning the Father had assisted as one of the ushers at high mass in St. Teresa's Girgaum, though the previous evening he had suffered from violent headache, much more violent than he had ever felt before. On Monday he felt too unwell to take his class, and on Tuesday he was unable to celebrate mass, but still was not confined to his room. On the Wednesday morning the Brother Infirmarian, going to inquire how he had passed the night, found him a corpse. Father Ziegert was 39 years old on the 18th March; he had arrived in India on the 6th November last. Those who heard him preaching the Jubilee in the Fort Chapel, three weeks later, on the three days before the first Sunday of Advent, will be able to estimate the strength of mind and body of him who then addressed an audience for the first time in India and in a language not his own. When Father Ziegert entered the Society of Jesus, he was already twenty-three years old and had made a full course of University studies in Germany. During the Franco-German war he offered himself for ministry in the hospitals, and for two months he lived among those dying of wounds and of dysentery. His love of learning and his zeal for souls seemed to run on at an equal pace. The mail that arrived on Tuesday brought to him from Europe the diploma appointing him Director of the Apostleship of Prayer.—Bombay Catholic Examiner.

AN ADVENTURE WITH A BEAR.—A correspondent sends the following, under date the 18th April :—"A bear which for the past six or eight months had been the dread of the Bhil inhabitants on the skirts of the Deomogra Forests Reserve, in the North-western portion of Khandesh, was bagged on Monday last, with her two cubs, by Mr. Christopher George of the Topographical Survey. The brute was a perfect monster, and has lately become so fierce that two cart-tracks in the vicinity of her lair were disused, and the Bhils would on no account enter the country anywhere within a radius of two or three miles from her den. During the last twelve months she has killed four Bhils, and mauled eight others. Mr. George, who happened to be surveying this particular bit of ground, determined to make an attempt to rid the country of this brute, and while at work on Monday last, came upon the animal's usual retreat. Having got as near as within 15 yards of the spot, Mr. George and his Bhil followers waited patiently for a few moments, and the bear not putting in an appearance immediately, Mr. George was guilty of the indiscretion of handing over his rifle to his man to light his cigar; but before he had time to strike a match, the animal issued forth from her hiding place. Fortunately for Mr. George, she had no idea she was being so closely watched. Moreover, her attention was on the opposite side to that on which Mr. George was standing. This advantage was not lost, for Mr. George quietly regained his rifle, levelled, and in another moment the animal lay lifeless. The shot proved so effective that she died immediately. Her two cubs who had all this while been playing noisily on her back, seeing their mother killed, became frantic; but as they were too big and wild to be captured, it was determined they should also be shot. Another cartridge brought down one of the cubs, and the other, after much trouble and chase, gave up after receiving two bullets Mr. George's numerous friends and acquaintances in Poona will be glad to hear of his good luck, and compliment him on his fine bag."—Poona Observer.

THE PARSEE CHIEF MATRIMONIAL COURT.

ON Saturday at a sitting of this court, before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Melvill and eleven delegates (the Hon'ble Sir Jamsetjee Jeejeebhoy, Bart., acting as foreman), the suit of Jamasjee Jamsetjee Pavri vs. Buchoobai, for restitution of conjugal rights, was heard. Mr. F. R. Vicaji appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. Sealy, vakil of the High Court, for the defendant.

The plaintiff and defendant belong to the "mobed" or priestly section of the Parsee community. They both appear to be advanced in age, the plaintiff being about 50 years of age and the defendant 40. He was a widower and re-married about twenty years ago. He had children of the first marriage, and five more by his second marriage. He is employed in a Marwari shroff's firm as a general manager, on a salary of Rs. 30 a month. The suit was instituted for a restitution of conjugal rights, the defendant refusing to return to her husband, on the ground of his cruelty.

In conformity with the practice of the court in similar suits, the defence was first gone into. Mr. Sealy said the defence was that the plaintiff having exercised several acts of extreme cruelty towards the defendant, she was justified in refusing to go to her husband. In her written statement she had intentionally abstained from disgracing him by introducing in the present inquiry his adulterous conduct, and had confined herself to his acts of cruelty alone, and depended for the result on that plea. He urged, and the court would tell the gentlemen delegates, that one act of cruelty, well proved, was sufficient, in the eye of the law, to disentitle the plaintiff to the relief he now sought. He would prove, that on two occasions the plaintiff had attempted to cut her throat, in addition to exercising upon her a series of acts of cruelty extending over several years. The court and the delegates would be surprised to hear that within one week of the marriage the plaintiffs ought to quarrel with her, with the object of getting back the ornaments and silk dresses that had been presented to her as her dower. At that time the price of gold had gone up, and the plaintiff wished to sell the ornaments at a profit. She refused to part with them, as she thought they might prove useful to her hereafter. The result was a series of violent and unprovoked assaults. She complained to one of her mother-in-law when marks of blood were still fresh on her clothes. Her mother would have borne witness to this, but as she was lying in a paralysed condition, it was impossible for her to appear in court; but there were other witnesses who would prove the assaults. Amongst those who could speak of the plaintiff's cruelty to her were also certain priests who, according to the Parsee religious tenets, had passed through the ceremony of nahnu, which did not allow them to come to court; and if they did, they were, supposed to be defiled, and the process of re-purification would cost from Rs. 300 to Rs. 400. However, sufficient testimony would be adduced to convince the court and the gentlemen delegates of the cruelty exercised by her and of the plaintiff's malignant ferocity. She was beaten while she was in a delicate state. Tired of such treatment, she purchased peace by giving up her ornaments and clothes. For the credit of her that, she exercised her wits to bring about a reconciliations by surrendering all her valuable; and one would suppose that her husband would cease beating her. Five children were born to the parties, and it was natural that the plaintiff should maintain them. But he threw his children on his mother-in-law for support. While his wife and children were under-going privations and starvation he was enjoying all the good things of this world. He now looked hale and hearty, whereas his wife was emaciated and miserable in appearance. The expenses of her several confinements were defrayed by her mother, though her husband was naturally bound to pay for them. When she lived separately, she was unable to pay the rent of her room, and it was recovered by an attachment, her brother being obliged to pay the amount, as her husband would not. She then complained of the plaintiff to the Marwari shroff by whom he was employed. He there pushed her into the street, and offered her great indignity. As she belonged to respectable parents, she was still desirous of returning to her husband. Mr. Jehangeer Merwanjee, pleader of the High Court, and one or two others, endeavoured to bring about a reconciliation, but it was of no avail. Ultimately proceedings were taken in the magistrate's court, and Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee awarded seven rupees a month for her maintenance. There was no evidence taken, and the award was made with the assent of the present plaintiff. The allowance was paid for three months, but was then discontinued. The present proceedings were taken with the object of nullifying the order of the magistrate; and the gentlemen delegates would see that the plaintiff had not a house to lay his head in. Even rice was not provided for the defendant and her children, and the grain-dealer who supplied the necessaries of life had to be paid by other people.

Evidence was then gone into.

Buchoobai, the defendant, [illegible] being called into the witness-box, began to weep on the very first question being put [illegible] and the court had to wait for several minutes before she could answer questions. Iced water was given her, and she then deposed to the main facts above stated.

Bomanjee Furdoonjee Ustad deposed to certain quarrels between the parties, but sa
